Army JROTC

The mission of Army Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (AJROTC) is "To Motivate Young People to be Better Citizens". AJROTC prepares students for leadership roles while making them aware of their rights, responsibilities and privileges as Americans. To accomplish this mission, the program of instruction provides education in citizenship, leadership, life success, geography and wellness to help students succeed in high school and after graduation. The program promotes graduation from high school and provides instructional opportunities which benefit the student, community and nation. The program produces successful students and productive adults, while offering a constructive and disciplined learning environment. AJROTC is an elective course offering leadership education and physical training to high school students through four academic years, 9th through 12th grade.

Wearing the military uniform once a week is a requirement to participate in AJROTC. While in uniform, Cadets must meet the minimum appearance standards listed in the appropriate regulation, including haircut standards.
